David,

CCL and SACE anticipate calling one witness for the DESC and Duke hearings. We would estimate presentation of the witness taking about an hour, depending on Commissioner and cross-examination questions. We do not anticipate having more than an hour of cross-examination for each proceeding.

Kind regards,

Subject: Hearings in Docket Nos. 2019-184-E, 2019-185-E, and 2019-186-E - Limited Rehearings on Contract Length

EXTERNAL EMAIL - USE CAUTION

To the Parties:

The Commission is still in the process of attempting to set up hearing dates for the limited rehearings on contract length in the avoided cost dockets. It would be helpful if each party could give me, to the best of your ability at this time, an estimate of how long their cases would take to present before the Commission, understanding that it is difficult to estimate how much cross-examination would take place and how long it would take. It would also be helpful to know how many witnesses that each party plans to present. For purposes of these estimates, please assume at this time that applicants or petitioners in these cases would be those parties who originally filed Petitions for Reconsideration/Rehearing of the original merits orders, and as such, would pre-file testimony or their case-in-chief first. Also, please assume that the Companies, ORS, and any other parties presenting witnesses would prefile testimony as Respondents, and therefore, prefile their case-in-chief second. I would appreciate it if you would e-mail your best estimates to me by Monday, May 18, 2020 at 2 PM.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Regards,

David Butler

David,
 SCSBA anticipates calling one witness for each of the hearings. We estimate no more than a half-hour to put up our direct, so perhaps an hour total depending on questions. We'd anticipate no more than an hour for cross examination of each of the companies' witnesses. Thank you.

David,

CCL and SACE anticipate calling one witness for the DESC and Duke hearings. We would estimate presentation of the witness taking about an hour, depending on Commissioner and cross-examination questions. We do not anticipate having more than an hour of cross-examination for each proceeding.

Kind regards,

Subject: Hearings in Docket Nos. 2019-184-E, 2019-185-E, and 2019-186-E - Limited Rehearings on Contract Length

EXTERNAL EMAIL - USE CAUTION

To the Parties:

The Commission is still in the process of attempting to set up hearing dates for the limited rehearings on contract length in the avoided cost dockets. It would be helpful if each party could give me, to the best of your ability at this time, an estimate of how long their cases would take to present before the Commission, understanding that it is difficult to estimate how much cross-examination would take place and how long it would take. It would also be helpful to know how many witnesses that each party plans to present. For purposes of these estimates, please assume at this time that applicants or petitioners in these cases would be those parties who originally filed Petitions for Reconsideration/Rehearing of the original merits orders, and as such, would pre-file testimony or their case-in-chief first. Also, please assume that the Companies, ORS, and any other parties presenting witnesses would prefile testimony as Respondents, and therefore, prefile their case-in-chief second. I would appreciate it if you would e-mail your best estimates to me by Monday, May 18, 2020 at 2 PM.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Regards,

David Butler

David,

For all rehearings, Walmart does not expect to actively participate. We may be present, but do not plan to offer any evidence or cross-examine any witnesses.

David,

Johnson Development Associates currently anticipates putting forth two witnesses in both the DESC and Duke (DEC and DEP) rehearings and would expect needing less than 1/2 hearing day to complete for each rehearing, dependent upon the amount of Commissioner questions and cross. JDA would again ask that the hearings be held in the same week for the convenience of witnesses and parties and reserves the right to amend the number of witnesses. Thank you for the opportunity to provide input,

Jamey

Subject: Hearings in Docket Nos. 2019-184-E, 2019-185-E, and 2019-186-E - Limited Rehearings on Contract Length

EXTERNAL EMAIL - USE CAUTION

To the Parties:

The Commission is still in the process of attempting to set up hearing dates for the limited rehearings on contract length in the avoided cost dockets. It would be helpful if each party could give me, to the best of your ability at this time, an estimate of how long their cases would take to present before the Commission, understanding that it is difficult to estimate how much cross-examination would take place and how long it would take. It would also be helpful to know how many witnesses that each party plans to present. For purposes of these estimates, please assume at this time that applicants or petitioners in these cases would be those parties who originally filed Petitions for Reconsideration/Rehearing of the original merits orders, and as such, would pre-file testimony or their case-in-chief first. Also, please assume that the Companies, ORS, and any other parties presenting witnesses would prefile testimony as Respondents, and therefore, prefile their case-in-chief second. I would appreciate it if you would e-mail your best estimates to me by Monday, May 18, 2020 at 2 PM.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Regards,

David Butler

David,

ORS plans to present one witness, and we don't anticipate him being on the stand for more than a couple of hours – unless there is extensive cross-examination or Commissioner questions.

For each of the rehearings ORS respectfully requests to present its witness via Skype, or some other virtual platform, as we did in the original hearing in Docket No. 2019-184-E. We appreciate your and the Commission's consideration of this request.

Thank you!
 Jenny

David,

Johnson Development Associates currently anticipates putting forth two witnesses in both the DESC and Duke (DEC and DEP) rehearings and would expect needing less than 1/2 hearing day to complete for each rehearing, dependent upon the amount of Commissioner questions and cross. JDA would again ask that the hearings be held in the same week for the convenience of witnesses and parties and reserves the right to amend the number of witnesses. Thank you for the opportunity to provide input,

David:

At this time, DESC anticipates that it will have 2 witnesses and that its case should take no more than 1 day to complete, which is entirely dependent on the amount of Commissioner questioning and cross-examination by the other parties of record. DESC reserves the right to increase or decrease its number of witnesses as it determines necessary.

It would be helpful if each party could give me, to the best of your ability at this time, an estimate of how long their cases would take to present before the Commission, understanding that it is difficult to estimate how much cross-examination would take place and how long it would take. It would also be helpful to know how many witnesses that each party plans to present. For purposes of these estimates, please assume at this time that applicants or petitioners in these cases would be those parties who originally filed Petitions for Reconsideration/Rehearing of the original merits orders, and as such, would pre-file testimony or their case-in-chief first. Also, please assume that the Companies, ORS, and any other parties presenting witnesses would prefile testimony as Respondents, and therefore, prefile their case-in-chief second. I would appreciate it if you would e-mail your best estimates to me by Monday, May 18, 2020 at 2 PM.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

EXTERNAL EMAIL - USE CAUTION

To the Parties:

The Commission is still in the process of attempting to set up hearing dates for the limited rehearings on contract length in the avoided cost dockets. Subject: Hearings in Docket Nos. 2019-184-E, 2019-185-E, and 2019-186-E - Limited Rehearings on Contract Length

EXTERNAL EMAIL - USE CAUTION

To the Parties:

The Commission is still in the process of attempting to set up hearing dates for the limited rehearings on contract length in the avoided cost dockets. It would be helpful if each party could give me, to the best of your ability at this time, an estimate of how long their cases would take to present before the Commission, understanding that it is difficult to estimate how much cross-examination would take place and how long it would take. It would also be helpful to know how many witnesses that each party plans to present. For purposes of these estimates, please assume at this time that applicants or petitioners in these cases would be those parties who originally filed Petitions for Reconsideration/Rehearing of the original merits orders, and as such, would pre-file testimony or their case-in-chief first. Also, please assume that the Companies, ORS, and any other parties presenting witnesses would prefile testimony as Respondents, and therefore, prefile their case-in-chief second. I would appreciate it if you would e-mail your best estimates to me by Monday, May 18, 2020 at 2 PM.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Regards,

David Butler
